Tech-It-Out:

We continue to discuss:

Digital Citizenship

As students continue to learn at a time when technology is at their fingertips each and everyday in school and at home, it is essential for all students to understand the importance of being a "Good Digital Citizen"

Please take the time to attend the:

Wausau School District Digital Citizenship Presentation for Parents scheduled for

March 10, 6:30 - 7:30 pm in the auditorium at
John Muir Middle School

Great Digital Citizenship Resource:

Common Sense Media

Be sure to check back for new Tech-It-Out tips and website suggestions in each Lovin' the Library newsletter.

March is a super busy month in the Library!

We start out with an amazing celebration!!

Students have been experiencing all-things "Seussical," either in the Library or in their classroom, from reading Dr. Seuss' most recent book What Pet Should I Get to watching on YouTube one of Seuss' more animated characters from the 1950s, Gerald McBoing Boing – one of this Librarian's absolute favorites! The YouTube video can be found on the Library main page.

We continue to focus on famous women from the past and prominent women today through out the month as we:

CELEBRATE WOMEN IN HISTORY MONTH!

Check out some great reads both fiction and nonfiction about some "fantastical" women who have shaped the United States and the world with their awe-inspiring strength and knowledge.

- Girls Think of Everything: Stories of Ingenious Inventions by Women by Catherine Thimmesh
- Wheels of Change: How Women Rode the Bicycle to Freedom (with a Few Flat Tires Along the Way by Sue Macy
- Gutsy Girls: Young Women Who Dare by Tina Schwager and Michele Schuerger
- I Am Malala: How One Girl Stood Up for Education and Changed the World by Malala Yousafzai with Patricia McCormick
- Amelia and Eleanor Go For a Ride by Pam Munoz Ryan
- Rosie Revere, Engineer by Andrea Beaty
- My Name is not Isabella: Just How Big Can a Little Girl Dream? by Jennifer Fosberry

This list could go on and on … There are so many great books for young girls to read! The sky is the limit to what they can do!
